'Stop The Agenda-Driven Police Bashing'

In a strongly worded letter penned by both current serving members of Beis Din they lambast those agenda-driven community members who try to stir discord between the community and Police Departments in an attempt to settle personal vendettas. Read letter

כ"ד כסלו תשע"א

ה' עליהם יחיו: To the Residents of Crown Heights:

There have been a number of situations lately where relations between the Crown Heights Jewish community and the police department have been negatively impacted by people who have pursued a personal agenda to the detriment of the community.

Effective immediately, the following shall be binding on every individual in this community:

- 1) No one shall bring to the attention of the media, or provide to any person in the media, including newspapers, websites, radio or television, information regarding the police department, without written permission of Crown Heights Jewish Community Council.
- 2) No one may publish on any website critical stories about the Police Department without written permission of Crown Heights Jewish Community Council.
- 3) It is forbidden to file complaints or instigate investigations against the local police department relating to communal matters without written permission of Crown Heights Jewish Community Council.
- 4) No one shall bring to any media outlet, information about any resident that could, if publicized, lead to an investigation or intensified prosecution by any law-enforcement agency.
- 5) All Police relations are to be conducted only by the designated representative of the Crown Heights Jewish Community Council and by no other person.

The Crown Heights Jewish Community continues to work with police to improve the police interaction with the community and to ensure that proper attention is given to the needs of the community. Adherence to the guidelines above will improve that effort.

With blessings for a Freilichen Chanukah,

Rabbi A. Oseleba
Rabbi Jacob Schur
